Thanks:

Greg Albo, Adam Hanieh, David McNally, and Herman Rosenfield for being and providing valuable resources and distilling economic terms and theories into plain language that several of our artists used as the basis for their comics. Additional thanks to David and Herman for their help with the glossary. Also, special thanks to Laura Mac for being a sounding board, gopher and last minute rescuer. Lastly, thanks to the underfunded public education system for all spellin, and, grammatical errors.
